SMALL CLASS SIZES AND STATE-OF-THE-ART EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AN OPTION FOR DALLAS STUDENTS

Evolution Academy Charter School is currently enrolling for the 2011-2012 school year

RICHARDSON, TX – August 15, 2011 – While many public schools are facing a dreary 2011-2012 school year in the wake of budget cuts, teacher lay-offs, and overcrowded classrooms, Evolution Academy Charter School is preparing to unveil its state-of-the-art campus additions and low student-teacher ratios.

The latest expansion includes a two-building campus, boasting more than 50,000 square feet, which includes a science lab, fitness center and wellness program, piano lab, culinary arts program, and full-service cafeteria. The public charter high school can hold up to 600 students and open enrollment is going on now. School starts on August 22nd.

During the 2011-2012 academic year, the school will also serve free breakfast and lunch to all students, provide DART passes for transportation and will also offer music business courses where students will learn to write, produce and record music in the newly added state-of-the-art music studio.

Founded in 2002, by Cynthia A. Trigg, a school administrator with 20 years of experience, Evolution Academy is focused on providing vocational opportunities to equip its students with tangible skills that can be used in the real world. "Despite the challenge we face over the next two years with education budget cuts, our commitment to maximum teaching and learning continues," said Trigg, chief executive officer. "We have a great staff that is dedicated to teaching every student and a new building with new technologies and an exciting curriculum. We have numerous teaching techniques to utilize with our changing population of learners."

The mission of Evolution Academy Charter School is to enable its students to achieve academic, social and career success. With its mission at the forefront, Evolution Academy has an academic offering that is unmatched by other public, charter, or private schools and is dedicated to reaching and developing the bright minds of culturally-diverse high school students in the state of Texas. With a low student-teacher ratio of 18:1, the progressive charter school is able to offer the one-on-one attention and instruction that many students need to advance them to the next level.

Evolution Academy is a public charter high school, serving area students grades 9-12, ages 14-21. The 2011-2012 school year marks Evolution Academy's 10th year of changing lives and offering innovative educational opportunities for high school students looking for a choice about their educational opportunities. Evolution Academy Charter School believes in higher education, technology and innovative teaching practices and encourages and supports its students and former students in the pursuit of their dreams and goals. The school has graduated over 1500 students and has expanded three times. The school offers two convenient sessions, Monday - Friday from 7:40 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. to 4:20 p.m.
